UNIVERSITY OVERVIEW

Guangxi Medical University was founded in Nanning in 1934 and adopted its present name in 1996. The six-year English-taught Clinical Medicine programme covers anatomy, pathology, internal medicine, surgery and practical training. Clinical-skills and medical experimental centres support the course. Chinese-taught medical degrees have separate HSK and CSCA requirements.

KEY ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- 01 Age and education. Non-Chinese, aged 16-30, healthy and without criminal record; high-school diploma or university-recognised equivalent, including assessed A-Level/GED. Under 18: guardian details and three-party authorization.
- 02 English. IELTS overall above 5.5, every band above 5; TOEFL iBT at least 70 or ITP at least 450; Duolingo above 90; or recognised equivalent. Native English speakers are exempt.

- 03 English MBBS assessment. CSCA Mathematics and Chemistry in English; Chinese subject is not required. Document screening and online/telephone interview. FirstLiners coordinates the intake's CSCA-result deadline. Chinese-taught programmes have separate HSK and CSCA rules.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

YOUR APPLICATION DOCUMENTS

Checklist for Clinical Medicine / MBBS. Other degrees may have different requirements.

- ☐ High-school certificate. Genuine high-school diploma or university-recognised equivalent; A-Level/GED qualifications are assessed by the university. Pending graduates must obtain the final diploma before enrolment. Keep the qualification file distinct from any optional achievement evidence.
- ☐ Transcripts. Secondary-education grades 7-12 or the accepted equivalent. Include the complete academic sequence required for your qualification so the university can assess the application; FirstLiners coordinates the university's review if your school system uses a different structure.
- ☐ National university entrance examination. Submit national university-entrance examination results if available. This is separate from the required CSCA report; do not assume one examination replaces the other. FirstLiners coordinates treatment of your particular qualification with the university.
- ☐ CSCA report. English MBBS: Mathematics and Chemistry from English papers. A Chinese subject is not required. Meet the result-submission deadline coordinated by FirstLiners.
- ☐ English evidence. IELTS overall above 5.5 and every band above 5; TOEFL iBT at least 70 or ITP at least 450; Duolingo above 90; or a university-recognised equivalent. Native English speakers are exempt.
- ☐ Study plan. More than 500 words in English, focused on the intended major. Explain the programme you are applying for; this written plan is separate from the three-minute self-introduction video and from optional achievements.
- ☐ Self-introduction video. Three minutes in English, with clear picture and speech. Cover education and interests, personality, reasons for the major and for China/GXMU, and career plans. This is separate from the written study plan. FirstLiners obtains the current file-size and format instructions before submission.
- ☐ Supporting achievements. Optional volunteer, work, award or competition certificates and work. Include relevant evidence that you already hold; these optional achievements do not replace the high-school qualification, CSCA report or English evidence.
- ☐ Guardian authorization. For applicants under 18: guardian information and guardianship authorization signed by all three parties. FirstLiners coordinates the current university form and the guardian's required identity/supporting records for your intake.
- ☐ Document format. Provide documents to FirstLiners for coordinated submission; no paper mailing. Other-language certificates and transcripts need notarised Chinese/English translations. FirstLiners coordinates passport, medical and police-certificate formats.

Keep complete scans and originals. Use passport spelling consistently; follow the university rules for translations, notarisation and validity.
