UNIVERSITY OVERVIEW

Harbin Medical University traces its history to a medical school founded by Wu Lien-teh in 1926. Its six-year English-taught MBBS combines medical-school study and hospital training. Admission includes document review, a university examination in Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Biology and English, and an interview. These assessments are separate from the CSCA requirement.

KEY ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- 01 Age and education. Non-Chinese ordinary-passport holder; males 18-21, females 18-22. High-school graduate or final-year student with satisfactory results and good physical/mental health. Chinese-origin cases require nationality review.
- 02 English. TOEFL at least 70 or IELTS Academic overall 6.0; native speakers exempt. Entirely English-medium high school may qualify with the school's certificate.
- 03 Assessment. University written-test exemption: GPA at least 3.3, all subjects B or above, or all subjects at least 80%. Others sit Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Biology and English. Interview required. CSCA participation/report is separate: FirstLiners coordinates its subjects and paper language; written-test exemption does not remove CSCA.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

YOUR APPLICATION DOCUMENTS

Provide the complete application file to FirstLiners. Keep clear scans and originals for enrolment checks.

- ☐ University application form. Complete the HMU form accurately in Chinese or English. Review every entry against the identity and academic records before submission; later changes are not accepted.
- ☐ Passport. Scan the first page of a valid ordinary passport. Check the personal information against the application form and obtain any additional nationality-review records required for your circumstances.
- ☐ High-school diploma. School-stamped diploma certified by the issuing country's Ministry of Education or Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Present originals and certification upon enrolment.
- ☐ Expected-graduation certificate, if applicable. Final-year students submit a certificate issued by their high school and must obtain the diploma before entering HMU.
- ☐ High-school transcripts. School-stamped academic transcripts. Final-year applicants submit every completed high-school year to date. The 2026 written-test exemption uses GPA at least 3.3, all subjects B or above, or all subjects at least 80%; the interview and CSCA requirements remain separate.
- ☐ English certificate or exemption evidence. TOEFL at least 70 or IELTS Academic overall 6.0 for this programme; or school-issued confirmation that every high-school course was taught in English. Native-speaker exemption applies.
- ☐ Physical examination. Physical-examination certificate or report in the required format and period coordinated by FirstLiners.
- ☐ Police clearance. Valid no-criminal-record certificate from local police, normally issued within six months before application submission.
- ☐ Optional supporting evidence. Optional financial guarantee, awards, merit certificates, community-service records or special-skills certificates.
- ☐ Translations and certification. Non-Chinese/non-English documents require original plus notarized Chinese or English translation. Multi-page documents must be stamped on each page or across sheet edges. Chinese embassy/consular notarization is recommended.
- ☐ Originals and supplementary verification. Original documents may be requested for checking. Submissions are not returned regardless of outcome, and later changes are not accepted; review the complete file before sending it. Bring original qualifications and certifications for the university's enrolment checks.
- ☐ CSCA score report. CSCA participation and a score report are required. FirstLiners coordinates subjects, paper language and the deadline. Exemption from the separate university written examination does not waive CSCA.
