UNIVERSITY OVERVIEW

Jinan University's International School was established in 2001. Its six-year English-taught Clinical Medicine programme is based at Shipai Campus in Guangzhou and awards the Bachelor of Medicine. Medical sciences lead into diagnostics, clinical subjects and public health. The four-year Pharmacy programme is based at Panyu and has its own curriculum and entry requirements.

KEY ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- 01 Age and education. Over 18 and no older than 25; high-school diploma or equivalent. Foreign nationality, good health and no criminal record; relevant Chinese-nationality/parentage cases undergo additional review.
- 02 English. Non-native speakers: IELTS at least 5.5, every band at least 5; TOEFL iBT at least 80; or SAT at least 1030.
- 03 Clinical Medicine assessment. CSCA Mathematics and Chemistry; academic, language, conduct and health review with recommendation materials. Medical entrants diagnosed with colour blindness or colour weakness after enrolment must transfer outside medical/pharmaceutical fields. Other English degrees use different CSCA combinations; obtain their separate checklists.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

YOUR APPLICATION DOCUMENTS

Clinical Medicine document checklist. Other degrees have their own requirements; FirstLiners coordinates your complete file.

- ☐ Application form. Prepare the Jinan/Huaqiao registration form with FirstLiners for your programme and route. This form is separate from the personal statement and recommendations.
- ☐ Passport. Copy; applicants already in China also upload latest valid Chinese visa and entry/exit stamps.
- ☐ CSCA report. For Clinical Medicine: Mathematics and Chemistry. Other English degrees use their own subject combination; see programme-specific eligibility.
- ☐ High-school diploma. High-school graduation certificate or school-issued expected-graduation proof. Provide the final diploma by your intake deadline; retain the original for enrolment checks.
- ☐ Academic transcripts. Academic transcripts for every high-school year. Include international examination results such as SAT, ACT, A-Level, AP or IB if available. Use the university's document-format rules and retain originals for enrolment verification.
- ☐ Language certificate. Relevant English-test evidence valid within two years for the review-admission route. Non-native speakers need IELTS at least 5.5 with every band at least 5, TOEFL iBT at least 80, or SAT at least 1030.
- ☐ Personal statement. For review admission, describe yourself, your education history and your study plans in China. The assessment includes self-recommendation and one teacher recommendation; prepare the route-specific forms requested by the university.
- ☐ Recommendation. One letter from graduating school, university overseas admissions office, overseas Chinese organisation or recognised community figure; review-admission route.
- ☐ Medical examination. Medical-major review applicants use the university form, with a report issued within the preceding six months. After enrolment, medical/pharmaceutical entrants diagnosed with colour blindness or colour weakness must transfer to a major outside those fields.
- ☐ Police clearance. No-criminal-record certificate issued within six months of registration.
- ☐ Nationality supporting records, if applicable. Former Chinese residents: nationality/household cancellation, foreign nationality acquisition and four-year entry/exit records to 30 April 2026. Foreign citizens at birth with Chinese parent(s): birth-nationality proof, parents' foreign permanent residence before birth and four-year entry/exit records.
- ☐ Document format. Chinese/English originals or notarised copies. Other-language documents need the original and a notarised Chinese/English translation. Originals are checked at admission; additional records may be requested. Provide the final diploma by the intake deadline.
