UNIVERSITY OVERVIEW

Sichuan University's West China medical education traces its history to 1910. The six-year English-taught MBBS requires at least 308 credits. Basic medicine leads into clinical subjects and supervised hospital practice. Training includes history-taking, physical examination, emergency care and communication with patients and families.

KEY ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- 01 Age and education. Non-Chinese, at least 18 and normally under 25, physically and mentally healthy; high-school qualification with good results. Relevant Chinese-parentage/nationality cases require additional review.
- 02 English. TOEFL at least 80, IELTS at least 6.0 or accepted equivalent. Native English speakers are exempt; a highest qualification taught in English may qualify using official medium-of-instruction evidence.
- 03 Medical tests. English medical programmes require CSCA Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry. FirstLiners coordinates the programme's application calendar and any additional university assessment.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

YOUR APPLICATION DOCUMENTS

Checklist for Clinical Medicine / MBBS. Other degrees may have different requirements.

- ☐ Passport. First-page copy, with at least six months remaining at application. Mainland-China residents also provide valid visa/residence-permit page.
- ☐ Graduation certificate. High-school diploma or school-stamped expected-graduation certificate with the graduation date. A high-school qualification with good results is required. Provide the final diploma by your intake's registration deadline.
- ☐ Previous China study. A performance statement from your former Chinese school if living or studying in China, or if you previously studied there. Disclose the relevant study history and obtain the school-issued evidence requested for your circumstances.
- ☐ High-school transcripts. School-stamped high-school academic results. Submit the complete record needed to assess your qualification, using the university's Chinese/English and translation rules. Keep the academic file consistent with the graduation certificate.
- ☐ Personal statement. In English for MBBS: introduction, application reasons, understanding of major and study plan.
- ☐ English proficiency. TOEFL at least 80, IELTS at least 6.0 or an accepted equivalent. Native English speakers are exempt. If your highest qualification was taught in English, supply official medium-of-instruction evidence under the permitted exemption route.
- ☐ Medical examination. Foreigner Physical Examination Form completed within six months of application. Bring the original examination and blood-test results for enrolment verification.
- ☐ Financial proof. Funding-source/guardian guarantee: family bank deposit or parent/guardian income certificate. Recommended funding is at least USD 5,000; full-scholarship applicants are exempt. This is proof of available support, separate from tuition and other charges.
- ☐ Police clearance. Local public-security no-criminal-record certificate within six months of application.
- ☐ Additional achievements. Award certificates or other supporting evidence where applicable. Include relevant achievements already held, while keeping the essential academic, language and CSCA documents complete.
- ☐ CSCA report. English medical programmes require Mathematics, Physics and Chemistry scores. Prepare the complete three-subject report rather than assuming the Mathematics/Chemistry combination used by some other universities applies to SCU.
- ☐ Document form. Provide electronic originals or notarized Chinese/English copies to FirstLiners for submission. For another language, attach official Chinese/English translations. Incomplete applications are rejected and the university may request supplements; provide any requested additions promptly through FirstLiners.
- ☐ Enrolment documents. Bring the printed admission letter and JW201/JW202, original or notarized highest diploma, original medical examination and original blood-test results. Register in person on the date specified by the university after completing the study-visa process.

Keep complete scans and originals. Use passport spelling consistently; follow the university rules for translations, notarisation and validity.
